March 11th
7-9pm

Emotions, personalities, and a sense of humor are traits Amy Ringholz tries to capture in each painting. Sometimes her animals have humanlike characteristics that you can see in their expressions and souls through their eyes. Amy celebrates the importance of animals in our lives depicting them as smart, strong, powerful and beautiful creatures worthy of our amazement.

Come meet Amy and see her new works from "The Great Love Story" depicting her entrancing animals in pairs.
